WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 15, 1902,

She Read the Signal. There is a romantic story about Lord Kelvin's second marriage. In the early seventies he, then Sir William Thomson, was in West Indian waters, on board his schooner yacht, the Lalla Rookh. As a recreation he took up the question of simplifying the method of signals at sea. He had been talking of it at the dinner table of a friend in Madeira, and the only apprehension that seemed able to grasp it was that of his host's daughter, a lady he greatly but silently admired.
"I quite understand it, Sir William,"

"Are you sure?" he questioned, half doubtfully. "If I sent you a signal from my yacht, do you think you could read it and could answer me?"
"Well, I would try," she responded.
"I believe I should succeed in making

The signal was sent, and she did suc-

A Homely Greeting

According to Ainslee's Magazine when the governor of Newfoundland, Sir Henry McCallum, K. C. M. G., went ashore at a small harbor of the east coast he was met at the landing place by a grizzled old fisherman, who sought to make the stranger welcome whoever he might be. "Be you comin' ashore, sir?" he ask-

"Yes," said the governor.
"Be you here about the ile (seal oil)?" the fisherman pursued.

"No," said the governor. "Be you one o' 'Sam' Lewis' men from Red bay, sir, come about the

"I am the governor of Newfoundland," Sir Henry announced, with some show of dignity.
"Be you, now?" said the fisherman, with a friendly offer of his hand.

"Well, 'tis a mighty good job-if you can hold it. An' I hopes you will. Would you like a cup o' tea, sir?"

"A Lot of 'alr."

The inhabitants of the little town of Somersby, in England, where Tennyson was born, are frank in giving their opinion of their distinguished fellow townsman. One old woman thus related her impressions of the poet to a

"'E was a very quolet man. 'E seemed as if 'e was 'alf asleep, with 'is oyes 'alf shut an' peepin', an' 'e used to poke at ye, loike i' fun, wi' 'is stick. 'E 'ad such a lot of 'air an' a long beard, an'," sinking her voice confi-dentially, "'e never looked very clean; no, 'e didn't."

And this somewhat startling testimony was promptly confirmed by her husband, who added:
"If you'd met 'im gooin' along this dusty rooad, you'd 'a' takken 'im for a tramp gooin' to Brigg for a night's

It Reminded Him.

One sharp November day, says the Philadelphia Record, a boy entered a car, leaving the door open, much to the discomfort of an old gentleman who sat next. As the wind chilled his mar-row his temper rose. Leaning across his seat and taking the kid by his ear, he said: "Were you brought up in a barn? Why don't you shut the door?" The boy said nothing, but closed the door, coming back to his seat in tears. This sight moved the old man to relenting pity. "There, there," he said, "lit-tle man; I didn't really mean you were brought up in a barn."

"That's just it," retorted the kid. "I time I see a jackass it makes me think of it."

THE TEIBUNE FARMER is, as its name implies, devoted to the interests of farmers and their fsmitles, It is meant to be their friend, adviser and helper in the fullest meaning of the words, bringing to them all the available facts and information calculated to aid them. And special care is taken to provide interesting reading matter for the women and young folks. $1 a year.

In the three issues of each week it summarizes THE DAILY TRIBUNE, while giving in their entirety many of the very best features and illustrations, For those who have neither the time nor the means to indulge to a metropolitan daily newspaper, and yet want to get all the news of the world treated from a national point of view, THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is just the paper. Price $1.50 s year.

THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC for 1902 will be bigger, better and more valuable than over. All the records and statistics worth having. On sale January 1. Frice 25 cents.
